Subject: RE: Update on IRIS interagency workgroup

Hi Jamie,

The IRIS Interagency Workgroup (IWG) was convened in August, co-chaired by EPA/ORD and OMB/OIRA. The IWG met once on this issue in August and has two more meetings scheduled in September (the 14th and 25th). After the meeting on the 25th, we will draft a brief Report to Congress (on the order of 2-3 pages), where we will summarize the meetings and actions, and plans moving forward. In addition, NCEA has contracted the National Academies to hold a public meeting to evaluate IRIS's progress and to issue a consensus report within 6 months of that meeting. That report will also inform the IWG.

Please let me know if this is sufficient for now or if you need additional information.

Thanks,

Tina

Hi Tina,

OCFO has asked for an update on the interagency workgroup related to IRIS. I had the language below from last month. Is this still accurate?

Thanks!
